

STANDING RULES for
PRIVATE PARTIES:

Any member wanting to have a party at the Lodge where non-members will be attending, and alcohol will be served, are required to purchase rental hall insurance.

A member wanting to have a party must contact the Administrator or his designated representative.

Member must provide $205 to the Lodge. $155 will pay for the required insurance. The remaining $50 will be returned after the Lodge has been returned to it's before party condition; or will be used to pay for cleaning of the Lodge.

Any special Alcoholic beverages or entertainment must be approved by the Administrator or the Social Quarters Manager.